

Lotus Protector for Mail Security V2.5.1 VMware settings (for Administrators)

VMware settings

Use these recommended VMware settings if you are installing Lotus Protector for Mail Security from an ISO or from the Installation DVD:

| VMware setting | Recommended setting |
|------------------------|---|
| Name | Use a name that identifies the machine on the VMware Workstation or the VMware Server |
| Guest operating system | Use SUSE Linux Enterprise Server 10 (32-bit) |
| Location / Datastore | Select the location of your host system where you want to store the machine |
| CPU | Select the number of CPUs that the machine should use, depending on the number of CPUs used on the host system 1 CPU (Normal setting) Multicore supported |
| Memory | 1024 MB (Normal setting) |
| Network | Use two network interfaces: 1 Host-only interface 1 Bridged network interface on Bridged On VMware ESX, use flexible or E1000 driver. |
| Hard disk controller | Use SCSI or IDE hard disk controller |
| Disk capacity | 30 GB for testing 50 GB for production machines |